

WHAT DID YOU SAY ABOUT FREE SUGAR?

Wilson Will Keep Tariff on Saccharine Substance and Extend Emergency Tax Law.

JUST MUST HAVE THE MONEY

WASHINGTON, Oct. 7.—Retention of the present duty on sugar until conditions become normal and extension of the emergency tax law until the European war is over are two revenue measures which the administration has decided to ask from congress on the coming session. Secretary McAdoo announced tonight he would recommend the necessary legislation and said President Wilson is in accord with the plan.

Many Suggestions Offered.

No other revenue measures have been approved by the administration so far, although many suggestions have been offered which may be considered before congress completes its work. Retention of the duty on sugar—which goes on the free list May 1, 1916, unless congress acts—would give the treasury about $50,000,000 a year. The emergency tax is counted upon to produce about $100,000,000 a year.

Since both the sugar duty and the emergency tax are working at present, however, this would not mean any increase in existing revenues.

Larger appropriations for the army and navy without any corresponding cut in other expenditures indicate that more revenue must be raised from other sources in the next few months. There has been much talk about an issue of Panama canal bonds, authorization having been given by congress for the issuance of more than $200,000,000 of these securities, but Mr. McAdoo has stated that no such step is in contemplation. A lowering of the exemption limit of the income tax law is believed to be more probable.

CRIME AT MINIMUM WHILE PARADE MOVES

In spite of the fact that practically every home in the city was deserted in order that the big parade might be viewed, there were but few burglaries. This was indicated at midnight, when the central police station had only two complaints.

Nearly every member of the department was hard at work directing the tremendous flow of traffic, and as a result had the thieves an inclination they would have had an easy time. The fact that but few robberies were reported the police say, is proof that Omaha is not experiencing the crime wave that usually strikes large communities at the beginning of cold weather.

Here is the crime calendar for last night:

- J. M. Hatten, 218 S. Poppleton, home prowled, but only a pistol taken.
- Joe Smith, 184 South Twenty-fifth, held up at Twenty-second and St. Mary's by two masked men, and relieved of $1.
- Alvin belonging to Ed Peterson, 2302 Miami, and Jim Brejcha, 120 South Twenty-first street, "borrowed" $1.
- C. M. Scott, Lincoln, reported theft of four laprobes and overcoat from automobile.
- C. Paulson, North Platte, Neb., lost $3 to pickpocket.
- A. W. Proser, 2311 Burt, reported home robbed by burglars. Old coins and jewelry worth $20.
- A. G. Coleman, Missouri Valley, Ia., reported theft of grip from lobby of State hotel.

W. C. A. PREPARES TO BUILD DORMITORY ON NEW SITE

The Women's Christian association, that has charge of the affairs of the Old People's Home, is about to inaugurate a campaign to raise funds for the construction of a dormitory building on the grounds near the Deat and Dumb Institute. The hope is expressed that enough money will be pledged so that work on the foundation of the proposed building may be started this winter and the structure completed early next year.

It is asserted that the old building on Wirt near Twenty-fourth street has become so dilapidated and out of repair that it cannot be occupied much longer. It is in such bad condition throughout that officers of the association do not feel that they are risking in expending much money on repairs.

WAR HELMETS SENT TO OMAHA; MADE INTO BANKS

Omahans of Teutonic blood or sympathies will be able to inspect real Austrian war helmets that have been through severe fighting. Two helmets have arrived by mail, addressed to the Omaha Tribune and will be placed in the German Home and the Museum Verden. They have been made into banks and money dropped into them will be sent to the New York office of the Tuxton Red Cross organization, Val J. Peter says.

Parrish, head of the publicity bureau of the Commercial club, has received a telegram from the Masonic Relief Association of the United States and Canada, which is now in session at Indianapolis, announcing that the 1917 convention will be held in Omaha. This convention will bring about 250 persons to Omaha.

GLAPP TALKS TO TEACHERS AND TO PALIMPSEST CLUB

Drama League Will Hold First Meeting Saturday Afternoon

On Saturday, October 9, at 3:30 p. m. the first meeting of the Omaha Drama League will be held in the auditorium of the Central High school. The first lecture of the season will be given by Prof. Frederick Morrow Fine, his subject is "The Play's the Thing."

At this meeting the plans for the winter's work will be presented. Courses of study and other material which has been received for any who now hold a membership card will be distributed at this meeting upon presentation of said membership card.

Those who have signified their desire to join and have not yet secured their membership card, or any others interested, may secure the card at this meeting from the treasurer, Mrs. H. H. Baldrige, by payment of $1, or by sending check with name, address and telephone number to Mrs. H. H. Baldrige, 121 South Thirty-ninth street. Mrs. Baldrige, treasurer, and Mrs. Cuming, chairman of the membership committee, will be found at this meeting, opposite the entrance to the auditorium.

The material so far secured will then be sent for, for those who join before October 12 and mailed to such new members as soon as received. Later material will be sent as received to all members.

Anyone who is interested in hearing about the work of the league is most cordially invited to attend this meeting. Attendance entails no obligation to join. Tickets for the lecture by Lady Gregory on "The Irish Theater," to be given October 22 at the Grand Opera house, may be obtained on Saturday afternoon at the east and west entrances to the Central High school. These tickets will be sold for 25 cents to all who present membership cards. To others the price will be $1.

HIGHWAYMAN SHOTS AT DRUG STORE CUSTOMER

When a customer in the drug store of George Greenough, 1024 South Tenth street, was a trifle slow about putting up his hands upon command of the negro highwayman who has been active during the last week, the latter fired a shot at him and fled. The bullet buried itself in the woodwork a few inches away from the customer's head. His name could not be learned by the police.

OIL BARON TELLS MEN OF HIS LOVE

Both Workers and Himself in Danger of Believing Some of Stories About Each Other.

"I'M YOUR FRIEND," HE SAYS

SUNRISE, Wyo., Oct. 7.—Two hundred men, their clothes, faces and hair powdered with ore dust to a uniform terra cotta hue, gathered around the bath house of the Colorado Fuel and Iron company iron mine here today and listened to a speech by John D. Rockefeller, Jr. The young capitalist stood half way up a wooden stairway that led to a mine viaduct. His clothing was sprinkled with ore dust and his hands were red with much claspings of miners' palms.

Won't Wait So Long.

"The last time I visited Sunrise was twelve years ago," began Rockefeller.

"I won't wait so long before coming to see you again," continued the speaker. "It is not a good thing for us to let so much time pass without meeting each other. We are in danger of getting to believe some of the stories each heard about the others. If anybody tries to tell you that I am your enemy don't believe him. I'm your friend."

"We are partners in this business and neither can get along without the other. Your labor would not earn you a living without capital to provide a place to work and a market for your products. My capital would not avail to get the ore out of the ground without your strong arms and brave hearts to toil as steam shovels under the earth. We must work together or both will suffer."

Doing All He Can.

"Just remember I am doing everything I can for you. Times are hard now and the men who have put their money into this enterprise are not making anything, but times will improve and with a better demand for our products there will be more work and all of us will prosper."

Electric Board to Show World's Series for the Omaha Fans

The electric scoreboard which was operated with so much success by Charlie Frank at the Krug theater last year when the Braves triumphed over the Athletics will be in operation again this year, so that Omaha base ball fans may follow every play made during the world's series this year between the Red Sox and Phillies. The board will operate in the Auditorium this year. The electric contrivance shows each play by the flashing of electric lights on a large board. A direct wire from the playing field to the Auditorium makes it possible for Omaha fans to know within but a few seconds what happens during the course of the game.

GILLAN GETS STATE AGENCY FOR FIDELITY

J. M. Gillan, former manager of the Auditorium, has been appointed state agent for Nebraska for the Fidelity Mutual Life Insurance company of Philadelphia, Pa. The Fidelity Mutual Life is one of the old line companies having a large and rapidly growing business throughout the entire country. This company writes life insurance in the United States only, never having considered it good business policy to extend its business operations to foreign lands. There were several applicants for the Nebraska agency. The business of life insurance is not new to Mr. Gillan, as he had some years' experience in that line before he went with the Auditorium company in 1901. His long residence in Omaha

WHEAT JUMPS UP ON HEAVY BUYING REPORTS

Reports of immense purchases by eastern speculators sent the price of wheat up 2 to 5 cents per bushel on the Omaha market. But one sale here was made under $1. The car fetched 99 cents and was off grade. Other sales were from $1 up to $1.06. Receipts were forty-one carloads. Heavy buying reports reported over a large area of the corn belt sent the cereal up 1 to 1 1/2 cents per bushel, prices ranging from 57 to 58 1/2 cents per bushel. The receipts were twenty-seven carloads. Oats were more steady than the other grains, the price range being between 23 1/2 and 25 cents per bushel. The oats sold 1/4 cent up to 1/2 cent down. Nineteen carloads were received and for sale.

TO END CATARRHAL DEAFNESS AND HEAD NOISES

If you have Catarrhal Deafness or head noises go to your druggist and get 1 ounce of Parmitin (double strength), and add to it 1/2 pint of hot water and 4 ounces of granulated sugar. Take 1 tablespoonful four times a day. This will often bring quick relief from the distressing head noises. Clogged nostrils should open, breathing become easy and the mucus stop dripping into the throat. It is easy to prepare, costs little and is pleasant to take. Any one who has Catarrhal Deafness or head noises should give this prescription a trial.—Advertisement.
